The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday January 24. to Saturday January 28. 1743.

St. James's, January 24.

THIS Day the following Addreſs of the Lord-Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum, High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County of Surry, aſſembled at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace holden in Southwark in and for the ſaid County, was preſented to the King by their Chairman William Richardſon, Eſq; (on whom his Majeſty was then pleaſed to confer the Honour of Knighthood) together with Sir Abraham Shard, who were introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Lincoln, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Lord-Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum, High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County of Surry, aſſembled at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace holden at Southwark, in and for the ſaid County.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord-Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum, High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Clergy of the Counry of Surry, aſſembled at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace holden at Southwark in and for the ſaid County, gladly embrace this our firſt Opportunity of congratulating your Majeſty, on your ſafe Arrival in your Britiſh Dominions, and on the Recovery of his Royal Highneſs the Duke.

An Arrival, after the Fatigues of a Campaign, ſo opportunely undertook in Support of the Queen of Hungary and the Liberties of Europe, againſt the ambitious Views and unjuſt Attempts of their common Enemy; Fatigues attended with the Great and Victorious Battle of Dettengen; the Succeſs of which, (under Providence) muſt be attributed to your Majeſty's Conduct and Courage, ſo glorioufly exerted, and ſo bravely imitated by your Royal Son.

We muſt alſo beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the Marriage of the Princeſs Louiſa to the Prince Royal of Denmark, and on the Addition to your Royal Family by the Birth of a Prince.

Events which muſt be agreeable to every true Briton, as giving not only the pleaſing Proſpect of better ſecuring the Proteſtant Intereſt in Europe to future Ages, but alſo the promiſing Hopes of continuing our Rights and Liberties to the lateſt Poſterity, thoſe moſt invaluable Bleſſings we now ſo fully enjoy under your moſt ſacred Majeſty; —— Bleſſings to which all Subjects but your own are Strangers.

Permit us therefore, Great Sir, with Sincerity to aſſure you, that we moſt ardently wiſh your Majeſty's Reign over us may be long, eaſy, and proſperous, and that we will, with the utmoſt of our Power, contribute thereto.

St. James's, January 25.

This Day the following Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace and Grand Jury, at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace holden for the County of Worceſter, was preſented to the King by the Right Hon. the Lord Sandys, who was introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Lincoln, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting; which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace and Grand Jury, at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace holden for the County of Worceſter, on the Seventeenth Day of January, One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-three.

MAY it pleaſe your Majeſty to accept our humble and hearty Congratulations on your ſafe Return from Abroad, after the Dangers and Fatigues to which you was pleaſed to expoſe your ſacred Perſon, in Defence of the Liberty of Europe, and in Support of the true Intereſt of theſe Kingdom. Next to the Hand of Providence, we ought to aſcribe the Defeat of our Enemies at Dettingen to that intrepid Spirit which your Majeſty's Preſence infuſed into your Forces, and to that Terror which the long Experience of your Courage and Conduct ſtruck into your Foes. We are therefore obliged, after returning our devout Thanks to Heaven, to expreſs the ſincereſt Gratitude to your Majeſty for a Victory ſo glorious to yourſelf, and ſo beneficial in its Conſequences, not only to your own Subjects, but alſo to every neighbouring Nation that has the Cauſe of Freedom and Juſtice at Heart.

We muſt farther beg Leave to cogratulate your Majeſty on the Safety and Preſervation of his Royal Highneſs the Duke, who has given early Proofs of heroick Bravery in the Field of Battle; on the happy Marriage of the Princeſs Louiſa with the Prince Royal of Denmark; and on the late Increaſe of Iſſue to the Prince and Princeſs of Wales, by the Birth of a Prince. As ſuch Events tend to ſtrengthen the Proteſtant Intereſt, and to perpetuate the Bleſſings of your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign, we cannot mention theſe Events without an unfeigned Senſe of Joy.

The Obligations we are under on Account of your Majeſty's paternal Goodneſs and Care of your People, will ever determine us to make ſuitable Returns of Duty to your Majeſty; to manifeſt manifeſt a ſteady Loyalty and Affection to your Royal Perſon and Family; to promote the Peace and Security of your Government; to put the Laws in due Execution, and to do whatever is incumbent on the moſt faithful Subjects under the beſt of Kings.

St. James's, January 25.

This Day the following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Huntingdon, was preſented to the King by Edward Montague, and Albert Nesbit, Eſqrs. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, who were introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Lincoln, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting. Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and other Inhabitants of the Borouth of Huntingdon.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Return to theſe Kingdoms, after a ſucceſsful, though dangerous, Campaign; and we ſhall always eſteem it among the many ſignal Inſtances of the Favour of Heaven to this Nation, that your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon remained unhurt in the Battle of Dettingen, where your Royal Preſence, under the Direction of Providence, was the Occaſion of that glorious Victory.

Your Majeſty's generous Concern to maintain your Allies in their juſt Rights, and to preſerve the Freedom of Europe, is becoming a Great and Mighty Prince, ſupported by a Brave and Free People; who, ſenſible of the Bleſſings of Liberty under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, gratefully contribute to relieve the Oppreſſed, and oppoſe exorbitant and arbitrary Power, which is deſtructive of the Happineſs of Mankind.

The Encreaſe of your Majeſty's Royal Family by the Birth of a Prince, and the additional Strength the Proteſtant Intereſt receives by the Marriage of the Princeſs Louiſa with the Prince Royal of Denmark, are Events which give great Joy to your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, as they are the Means of continuing the Government of theſe Kingdoms to your Royal Houſe, and with it the full Enjoyment of our Religious and Civil Rights.

That your Majeſty's Reign may be long and happy over us, and that theſe Kingdoms may be ruled by your Royal Progeny, ſo long as Religion and Liberty are valuable to Mankind, is the earneſt and conſtant Wiſh of us your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Given under our Hands, and the Common Seal of the ſaid Borough, this Twelfth Day of January, in the Seventeenth Year of your Majeſty's happy Reign.
